FOR SALE—HOUSES

THE TIMES Real Estate Bureau, Main 5260,

Will put you in touch with owners and agents of Available Houses.

A complete description accompanies all homes listed in Bureau which we are glad to place before TIMES readers, saving the necessity of extended trips about the city looking at property that not meet your requirements. This department is also equipped with information concerning towns suburban to Washington and can tell you the easiest way to reach them, what you may expect to find there, etc.

There are no charges for the service. Its whole puris the extension of a Real Estate service to TIMES readers.

If you desire further information of homes advertised call Main 5260, ask for bureau, giving registered number which appears at the end of each ad.

SENATE PLANS TO

Radical changes in some of its chief provisions are in prospect. Senator Smoot's recent characteriza-tion of the bill as an "absurdity" is Radical changes in some of its chief provisions are in prospect. Studebaker, which was not traded in yesterday, was active and strong, with sales ranging from 46 to 46%. Texas Ches. & Ohio 4½'s. Ches. & House leaders frankly favor a Con-gressional recess in November, and the postponement of action on the tax bill until December I. Senate-leaders are extremely hostile to this program and will agree to it only if it becomes apparent that the measure can't pass before election any

Fight On Profits Tax. The chief battle ground between the two houses probably will be the tax on profits. The Senate committee is wholly out of sympathy with the House alternative war and excess profits tax plan. Under this plan the Treasury Department is to levy whichever tax will produce more revenue—either a war profits tax of 50 per cent on purely war profits or an excess profits tax ranging from 35 per cent of profits of between 8 and 15 per cent of invested capital to The alternative feature of this plan is roundly condemned by most mem-bers of the Senate committee, who declare that if two plans can be legislated into a bill, a dozen or thirty could just as well be provided. The more kinds of alternative taxes there are, they argue, the more loopholes are provided for escape from the maximum that ought to be paid. Up to this point the Senate com-mittee is almost unanimous, but when it comes to substituting a plan for the House provision every member has a different idea. Among sug-gested provisions are:

Suggested Plans. Tax war profits 80 to 100 per cen and excess profits 60, any concern that made both war and excess profits to pay both taxes, while those no making war profits only the excess profits tax. Put a flat tax of from 8 to 15 per cent on all business, regardless of whether profits are due to the war or not, the rate of taxation to be de termined by the percentage of profit in the taxable year as compared with profits in three pre war years; no business to have any exemptions of any kind. Increase present excess profits axes. Senater Borah, leader of the wealth conscription group who last session urged the imposition of a heavy war profits tax, predicted today that what-ever plan is finally agreed on, the 80 per cent tax on war profits will be in the bill as finally enacted. "I am convinced that will stay," said Borah. "I believe Congress would find it easier to levy just and equitable taxes if it could disasso-ciate ideas of taxation applicable to peace from war taxation problems. But whatever we do, we must see that those who profit from the war pay the heaviest share of its mone-tary cost." Luxury Taxes To Stay. The luxury taxes seem likely to re-bill. They range from 10 to 20 per cent on various articles denominated luxuries and semi-luxuries. An effort will be made to reduce the liquor tax of $8 a gallon to $5, estimated it will raise in round figures $8,100,000,000. Of this, $3,200,-000,000 is to come from war and ex-cess profits; $2,377,000,000 from in-

$7,000 LEFT TO CHARITY Two thousand dollars each are left to Holy Trinity Church and the House of the Good Shepherd by Miss Catherine Heenan in her will, which was filed for probate today. An exhibition in physical culture exercises, showing children waving their arms and jumping up and down like Jacks-in-the-box, will be given simultaneously on each playground under the direction of Mrs. Rhodes, assisted by Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Camp Fire Girls and the Junior Red Cross.

The Drama League is arranging "acts" for the little performers.

GIVEN BY MINERS

The United Mine Workers' Journal urges that in the formation of co-operative stores by labor organizations certain policies be kept carefully in mind-for example, the establishment and maintenance of a limited interest and maintenance of a limited interest rate on any capital invested in the venture, and a "one man, one vote" principle as applied to matters affecting the membership, regardless of the number of shares of stock a member may own.

No goods should be sold on credit, the article suggests, and no goods should be sold below market price. Reserve and educational funds should be established, and returns should be based on the amount of purchases. based on the amount of purchases.

94% Membership should be open to all,
66 without distinction of race, religion.

A staff and suitable equipment are, of course, requisites for the operation of the store, and best conditions of labor should prevail. Committees on education and recreation should form libraries and found reading roms, it

FIGHT THE BOCHE

CAMP MEADE, Md., Sept. 21.-Angelo Pelazi got his first glimpse of this world in Rome. Nourishment was abundant and he grew rapidly. The simple life in the sun seemed to agree with him too well. Each day it was a greater effort for him to make his way on account of his weight. He did not care much for walking and finally decided to leave all the glorious ruins behind and go to Boston to enjoy the luxury of trolley cars. The leanness of the Boston tourists he envied. There he took on more weight. He opened a barber shop.

A man from a steel plant offered him a job in the boiler room where he could sweat away some of his fat.

The more he sweated the fatter he grew. Then he was sent to Meade.

He was rejected for the infantry because the trenches here were too narrow for him. For several months he has been at the cooks' and bakers'

His weight went from 240 to 265 pounds and then he was advised to managed to squeeze his way in. Then he would have great trouble getting out. He ate each meal just as if it was his last. Now he has had his last here. He has been rejected on account of his bulk.
